POSTED 9:12 AM, JULY 22, 2019, BY KSTEWARTPHL17

Philadelphia Dance Day is coming back for its 10th year this Saturday!

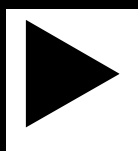

A group of local dance companies and independent instructors will team up to offer a day full of free dance workshops, live performances and a $10 evening dance party and showcase.

The goal of the event is to unite the community in celebrating dance as a powerful platform for creative expression and physical activity.

Our Khiree Stewart caught up with some of the instructors and showed off his dance moves.
